Bankr. Case No. 08-1789 (BRL)

OBJECTION TO TRUSTEE'S DETERMINATION OF CLAIM

ANTHONY M. SFERRAZZA (the "Customer") hereby objects to the Notice of Trustee's Determination of Claim (the "Determination") dated November 12, 2010.

BACKGROUND

1. On June 18, 2009, the Customer filed a customer claim, with supporting documents (together, the "Claim"), which the Trustee has designated as Claim No. 010104. The Claim is incorporated herein by reference.
2. On or about November 12, 2010, the Trustee in this matter (the "Trustee") sent the Customer the Determination, which denied the Claim in its entirety. The Determination states only that the Customer did not have an account with Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities (“BLMIS”) and, thus, is not a customer under the Securities Investor Protection Act (“SIPA”). The Determination offers no other basis for the denial of the Claim in full.

3. The Customer was an investor with BLMIS, along with other unrelated investment options, through his participation in the Sterling Equities Employees Retirement Plan (“401k plan”). The Customer, although not named, participated in the 401(k) plan that held an account at BLMIS denominated 1K W 182.

4. In connection with the determination of claims for claimants who did not have an account in his name at BLMIS (“the Customer Issue”), a scheduling order was entered regarding motion practice and a hearing concerning the Customer Issue. That motion practice and hearing, however, indisputably did not address ERISA claimants, such as Customer.

GROUND FOR OBJECTION

5. As required by this Court’s December 23, 2008 “Order Approving Form and Manner of Publication and Mailing of Notices, Specifying Procedures for Filing, Determination and Adjudication of Claims and Providing Other Relief” (the “Claims Procedures Order”), the Customer files this Objection to preserve all claims set forth in the Claim.

6. The Customer is a “customer” of the debtor as defined by the plain language of SIPA and relevant case law because the Customer entrusted money to the 401k plan for deposit with BLMIS for the purpose of investing, trading, or participating in the securities market. 15 U.S.C. § 78lll(2)(A).

7. The Customer is a "customer" of the debtor irrespective of whether the Customer's name was on the account, as the name of a BLMIS account is not determinative of customer status.

8. The Customer also objects to the denial of the contingent and other claims set forth in the Claim. As noted, the Trustee has offered no basis for the denial.

RELIEF REQUESTED

9. For the reasons stated herein and in the Claim, the Claim should be allowed in its entirety (including, without limitation, costs, fees, expenses, and a comparable rate of return), and the Court should direct SIPC to issue immediate payment to the Customer and such other amounts and equitable relief as the Court deems appropriate to compensate Customer's losses arising from his or her investment in BLMIS.

10. The Customer reserves the right to revise, supplement, or amend this Objection and its Claim and any failure to object on a particular ground or grounds shall not be construed as a waiver of Customer's right to object on any additional grounds.
